

Midland Eating Disorders - Lakes July/Sept 11

Project Recommendations / Findings for Follow Up	Related Project	Status	Whom Responsible	Objective Heading	Planned Completion Date	Progress Comments & Supporting Details
General practice providers have increased knowledge of eating disorders and their presentations	Midland Eating Disorders Strategic Plan 2009-2015	on track	For implementation	lcoal	Primary	Present – 5 years	Ongoing
Primary care providers maintain clients with eating disorders at a local level		on track	For implementation	lcoal	Primary	1-5 years	Yes, pre and post secondary intervention (if required)
Public Health providers are including messages relating to eating disorders in their planning for service delivery			For implementation	lcoal	Primary	1-3 years	Unable to comment
Primary health providers professional competence in working with clients with ED is increased		on track	For implementation	lcoal	Primary	1-5 years	Ongoing
Educational authorities recognise the early signs of school aged children / young people with eating and nutritional issues including any issues relating to obesity		on track	For implementation	lcoal	Primary	5 plus years	Ongoing
Kaupapa Maori primary health providers have increased knowledge and awareness of eating disorders within their populations		on track	For implementation	lcoal	Primary	1-5 years	Ongoing
Pacific People's primary health providers have increased knowledge and awareness of eating disorders within their populations			For implementation	lcoal	Primary	1-5 years	Unable to comment
Other identified ethnic groups are assisted in increasing their knowledge and awareness of eating disorders within their populations			For implementation	lcoal	Primary	5 -10 years	Unable to comment
Family and whanau have access to appropriate support groups where they can interact with others who have had similar experiences		on track	For implementation	lcoal	Primary	2008 – 2009	Offered at Lakes
Clear clinical pathways exist within secondary specialist services between mental health services and adult and paediatric medical services across both inpatient and outpatient settings		on track	For implementation	lcoal	Secondary	2008-2009	Development of these ongoing in Lakes, excellent pathway between iCAMHS and paediatrics, in development with adult medical, due mainly to limited clients in 16+ age range requiring in-patient management
Family and whanau work in partnership with eating disorders professionals		on track	For implementation	lcoal	Secondary	2008 - 2009	Working effectively in Lakes iCAMHS
Clinical staff working with adults are trained in a range of treatment modalities for the management of clients with eating disorders		on commenced	For implementation	lcoal	Secondary	2008 - 2009	Unable to comment, awaiting feedback from adult MH
All Midland region secondary specialist clinical staff with eating disorders expertise provide support to their local primary sector clinical and non clinical services staff to ensure pathways for care between primary and secondary services are		on track	For implementation	lcoal	Secondary	5-10 years	Available for consultation and supervision as required in Lakes iCAMHS
Service users can access a wide range of services appropriate to their needs and to what resources are available		on track	For implementation	lcoal	Secondary	2009-2010	5 MFBT trained clinicians, CBT-E trained clinician Lakes iCAMHS
Outpatient services are provided by multidisciplinary teams who have experience and skills in eating disorders work		on track	For implementation	lcoal	Secondary	2008 - 2009	Make-up of MFBT group- nurses and psychiatrists- Lakes iCAMHS
Across Midland there is increased focus on a workforce, with multiple competencies, that may include service users and whanau		on track	For implementation	lcoal	Secondary	2010-2011	Midland forum meeting this with training and peer supervision, inclusion of service users effective.